ARCO DEUM RELEASE “BEHSHR AIRWAYS” ON JUNE 21

WITH THEIR EP “WAIT WHAT” TO FOLLOW BEFORE THE END OF JUNE!

The duo made up of Christos Floros and Loucas Bretz are releasing fresh, nostalgic and upbeat summer tunes.

BEHSHR AIRWAYS & ARCO DEUM’S FIRST EP “WAIT WHAT”

Behshr Airways is a melancholic upbeat song about the difficulty of staying focused in our modern, interconnected societies and is a quirky preview to the much anticipated “WAIT WHAT” limited release coming out before the end of June. The song does not plunge the listener into sadness but rather invites him to celebrate the struggle. The lyrics were written while a little drunk aboard a long flight back to London, paired with the minimal melodic guitar riffs that defined the music.

“Wait What” will be ARCO DEUM’s first EP and will include 5 songs, including Behshr Airways. The titles of the songs will be shared with the public very soon. The EP is a relaxed, at times nostalgic and at times hopeful collection of songs written by the band throughout 2018 and 2019. Christos and Loucas are very excited to be releasing more songs, after more than a year of no new releases, following their releases of their singles Higher Hopes and Avalanche in 2018.

To listen to their new single and EP follow ARCO DEUM on Spotify or join their Member’s Club “ODEUM” at arcodeum.com to get notified when their music is released.

ABOUT "ARCO DEUM"

Arco Deum is a Luxembourgish alternative rock duo created by Loucas Bretz and Christos Floros. Christos and Loucas met each other shortly after learning to speak and attended the same school, the European School of Luxembourg, for over 12 years.

Their music is underpinned by gloomy melancholic rock ballads and quirky upbeat electronic rhythms. At a time when the world is trying to tell us how to be and how to feel, they share what they feel. Their lyrics explore a crisis of identity, culture clashing, politics and philosophy, bubble-childhoods, redemption, hopes for a better future, depression and last but not least, family.
